Gowns and Costumes at Special Prices.

THE unsettled conditions that have prevailed among the makers of women's outergarments the past few months have naturally produced a situation at variance with those of a normal season, and in its adjustment there is disclosed an overproduction in gowns and costumes. We are therefore pleased to announce that we shall place on sale

The Flonzaley Quartet. The Flonzaley Quartet will give its promised recital at the Columbia Theater this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and the indications are that this wonderful organization, recognized as the foremost interpreters of chamber music in the world, will be greeted by a large and critical audience. The programme is an exceptionally good one, and includes the Mozart quartet in G major (Koch-Verz, 387); De Bussey's quartet in G minor, Op. 10, and Haydn's quartet in F major Op. 3, No. 5, in all of their various movements. The organization has not been heard in this city for two years, and its appearance is looked forward to as one of the musical treats of the

"The Slavey."

Among the many fine performers with Mr. J. Forbes-Robertson's company, in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," is Miss Molly Pearson, who plays so beautifully the part of Stasia, the played by Miss Gertrude Elliott, sister of dine Bonner. The play has for its theme Maxine, who in private life is Mrs. the right of a wife to violate the conven-
